

A family of four is on a safari. A guide, a Black man wearing a brown jacket and cap with the 'TIME LIDE' logo, is kneeling and talking to a young boy and a young girl who are also kneeling. The boy is wearing a grey hoodie and camouflage pants, and the girl is wearing a grey shirt and shorts. A man, presumably the father, is standing on the right, looking at the guide. They are in a savanna landscape with trees in the background and a river or lake in the distance. The sky is blue with some clouds.

OUR FAMILY SAFARIS

Connect with nature and each other on the ultimate family adventure

FAMILY SAFARIS

Spend quality time in the places you love, with the people you love

We believe in introducing children to the wonders of the wild from an early age at Time + Tide, where our team take extraordinary care in sharing our deep appreciation for the land, wildlife and culture. Unforgettable encounters, immersive experiences and inspirational stories will connect you with the planet and its people - as well as each other. Simply enjoy time out together as a family, or get the children involved in a range of other fun-filled activities on safari.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

Enriching adventures await early explorers

Children's activities at Time + Tide Safaris are tailored to inspire and engage children of all ages on safari. Over and above action-packed game drives, there's a whole host of activities to keep children busy and happy, from sleepouts and tracking with our guides to art and crafts and cooking with our chefs. There's something unique to discover in each of the regions in which we operate.

INTO THE WILD

Nothing beats a first-time experience, except reliving it through the eyes of your children. Watch as they marvel at a mighty lion, or witness their face light up at the sight of a firefly. Big and small, there is so much to see, and our experienced guides won't let the little details pass you by on a game drive. Children can get close to the ground on walking safaris, or take to the water for a different perspective. They can fish for bream in the Chongwe River, or try their hand at tiger fishing in the Zambezi River. For the ultimate return to the wild, children over 12 can join you on our Sleepout under the Stars, where they will fall asleep under a canopy of a million twinkling stars, listening to the susurrations of the nighttime bush.

INTO THE WILD

In the interests of safety, participation of children in game activities is at the discretion of their guide and the minimum age inside National Parks for walking safaris and sleepouts is 12 years. Families of four or fewer members, including at least 1 child younger than 8 years, are required to book and pay for the use of a private game viewer for the duration of their stay. Adults are responsible for supervising children at all times.

BACK IN CAMP

Children under 12 can also learn the art of tracking with our guides on the paths between the rooms. They can mold and take home a animal track with them as a memory from their safari. Children can also choose where to set up a camera trap to see which animals came to visit overnight. Children can help our chefs make muffins for their morning game drive, cookies or cake for their afternoon tea, or smores on the fire for dessert after dinner. They can even learn how to bake bread in a traditional bush oven outdoors. Our team love to share their passion and knowledge of the various elements of a safari lodge with young, aspiring minds.

ARTS + CRAFTS

Children can craft their own souvenir to take home as a special reminder of their family safari. They are encouraged to collect natural materials with their guide and bring them back to camp to create their own natural paint brushes using sticks, feathers, leaves and grasses. They will also collect sand from the dry riverbank for a unique sand art activity in camp between drives. If time in their itinerary allows, kids can visit Tribal Textiles in South Luangwa for an art safari, or Mulberry Mongoose to create a custom piece of jewellery with local craftswomen, who use only natural materials and snare wire recovered from poaching traps. Mulberry Mongoose beading kits are also available in camp.

CONSERVATION + COMMUNITY

Each stay with Time + Tide Safaris contributes to the conservation and community efforts of the Time + Tide Foundation. In each region, children have the opportunity to experience the impact of sustainable tourism first-hand. Children can visit a local conservation office to learn about what is being done to protect wildlife, or visit the local village and school where they can meet the head teacher and learn about our female empowerment programme and visit one of the families on our home-based education programme.

ACCOMMODATING + FLEXIBLE

All ages are welcome

Time + Tide Safaris has a range of options for family accommodation across the prime national parks of Zambia. Choose from luxurious two-bedroom family safari tents at Chinzombo, or authentic seasonal camps in South Luangwa, with family safari tents available at Mchenja and Kakuli. Opt for a family suite (Albida) at Chongwe, or enjoy the exclusivity of Chongwe House, a standalone 4-bedroom house on the banks of the Chongwe river in the Lower Zambezi. Families will feel at home throughout our camps, with a warm, welcoming team and a flexible approach to service. Game drives, activities and meals times are flexible and personalised according to your family's preferences.

A black safari vehicle is parked in a savanna landscape with tall yellow grass and a line of green trees in the background. Five people are seated in the vehicle: a driver, a guide, and three passengers. A large tree with green leaves is on the left side of the frame.
